Opera Kelowna Presents a Wondrous Concert at Mission Hill Family Estate Winery With — Opera in the Vines —

Canadian Opera Stars Offer Spectacular Performance of Opera Arias
Set Against the Stunning Background of Okanagan Lake

Kelowna, BC — Opera Kelowna in collaboration with Mission Hill Family Estate Winery, presents their highlight concert, Opera in the Vines, on August 2, 2019 at 7:30pm at Mission Hill Family Estate Winery. The spectacular event will commence with a pre-concert reception at 6pm where patrons will delight in delectable food and wine pairings. Then, guests will venture to the outdoor amphitheatre set against the stunning backdrop of Okanagan Lake to enjoy a glorious evening of operatic favourites performed by Opera Kelowna's stellar vocalists, accompanied by a 17-piece orchestra led under the baton of esteemed music conductor Bernard McDonald.

"A Night at the Opera" is always something special and this evening will be even more so," says Alexandra Babbell, Artistic Director of Opera Kelowna. "During our upcoming concert of beloved opera arias on Mission Hill Family Estate Winery's intimate outdoor amphitheatre, audiences will be transported to a whole new level of musical bliss. Recognized as one of Canada's premiere open-air concert settings, the amphitheatre offers a concert experience unlike any other in the Okanagan, providing guests with the rare opportunity to get up close with Opera Kelowna's most gifted singers."

Opera in the Vines guests are invited to attend a magnificent pre-concert reception at 6pm on the beautiful grounds of Mission Hill Family Estate and enjoy food and wine pairings at the many chef attended stations throughout the winery. Audience members will enjoy confit chicken, roast pork, and smoked corn inspired by the creativity of Mission Hill's chefs and accompanied perfectly with their prized wines such as the 2018 Reserve Sauvignon Blanc, 2017 Reserve Meritage, and 2018 Reserve Chardonnay. After the reception, patrons will make their way to the spectacular outdoor amphitheatre, and bask in an evening of rapturous operatic performances by some of Canadian opera's most heralded singers including soprano Marie-Josée Lord, heldentenor Steeve Michaud, baritone Aaron Durand, and mezzo soprano Stephanie Tritchew.

Soprano Lord, recipient of the Concours International de Chant de Verviers, has sung some of the repertoire's most demanding roles, including Mimi in Puccini's La bohème for Opéra de Montréal, and Meg Page in Verdi's Falstaff for Opéra de Québec. Okanagan audiences will be familiar with heldentenor Michaud from his performance as Don José in Bizet's Carmen for Opera Kelowna. Michaud recently won the Prix de Chanson, a very prestigious singing competition held in France in late February. Audiences will also be delighted to see the return of baritone Durand who performed on the Opera Kelowna stage as the lead role of Papageno in Zauberflöte and Dancaïre in Carmen. Durand was also Person #3 in Vancouver Opera's acclaimed production of Stickboy. Mezzo-soprano Tritchew has graced the stages of Edmonton Opera, Tapestry Opera, and Vancouver Opera. Some of her highlight roles include Butterfly's Aunt in Madama Butterfly, Olga in Vancouver Opera's Eugene Onegin, and The Friend in Vancouver Opera Festival's Requiem for a Lost Girl.

The star vocalists, accompanied by the Opera Kelowna chorus and a 17-piece orchestra, will serenade the crowd with beloved arias, duets, trios, and ensembles from La traviata, La bohème, Madama Butterfly, The Pearl Fishers, Carmen, and Romeo and Juliet. Among the musical selections offered are “Je veux vivre” from Gounod’s Romeo and Juliet, “Libiamo ne’ lieti calici” from Verdi’s La traviata, and the magnificent duet, “Au fond du temple saint” from Bizet’s The Pearl Fishers. Opera Kelowna audience-favourite McDonald will return to conduct the concert, following his exceptional musical direction of Mozart’s The Magic Flute, Bizet’s Carmen, and Puccini’s La bohème.

Tickets for Opera Under the Vines are $295 per person and are available at: operakelowna.com.
